Multiple agencies including the U.S. Marshals are looking for 18-year-old Timothy George Simpkins. He should be considered armed and dangerous, police said.

The gunman, identified as 18-year-old Timothy George Simpkins, turned himself in Wednesday afternoon with his attorney.

Arlington police said he was arrested and charged with three counts of aggravated assault with a deadly weapon. They recovered the .45 caliber gun.

Simpkins reportedly fled the school in a 2018 silver Dodge Charger with the Texas license plate PFY6260 after the shooting.

Multiple agencies including the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives and the U.S. Marshals were looking for him and investigating the case.

"I have high confidence the shooter is not on the premises. I have high confidence there was only one shooter at this school," said Assistant Chief Kevin Kolbye with the Arlington Police Department. "Our heart goes out to the injured and all the students who went through the traumatic event at this school."
